Dear Congresswoman Cubin:

I write regarding the petition for presidential pardon that your staff forwarded to this office from your constituent, Mr. James Jacques Allemand.

Mr. Allemand's pardon application has been filed and is being processed. The executive clemency process frequently is lengthy, and we can give no estimate as to when the President will act upon any particular clemency request. Although we are thus unable to advise you when Mr. Allemand may expect to receive a decision concerning his application, please be assured that he will be notified promptly when final action has been taken.

Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Congresswoman Cubin:

The Office of the Vice President advised the Department of Justice of your inquiry concerning the pardon petition of your constituent, James Jacques Allemand. As you probably recall, your office originally submitted his petition to the Office of the Pardon Attorney last year.

Mr. Allemand's petition remains under consideration. The processing time for a pardon application can be lengthy, and we can give no assurance that final action will be taken by the President within a particular time frame. Accordingly, we are unable to advise you when you may expect a decision on the application. Nevertheless, we appreciate your continuing interest in Mr. Allemand's case, and will advise you promptly when a decision is made. I appreciate your continuing interest in this matter.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adams

Dear Congresswoman Cubin:

This refers to the application for pardon of James Jacques Allemand, whose clemency application you sent to the Department and about whom you have previously expressed interest. Copies of my previous letters to you on this matter are enclosed for your convenience.

Mr. Allemand's application has been carefully considered in this Department and the White House, and the decision has been reached that favorable action is not warranted. His application was therefore denied on April 18, 2006.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adams
Pardon Attorney
